Cybercounselling Online, Level 1

April 8th - June 30th, 2016

This course is for experienced counselling practitioners who want to offer professional, ethical text-based online counselling to their clients. You will learn both synchronous (e.g., secure email) and asynchronous (e.g., chat) approaches.

Fits into your schedule*

- three 4-week modules (12 weeks total)
- completely online
- most assignments are asynchronous

Certificates are issued jointly by the University of Toronto's Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work and Worldwide Therapy Online Inc.

*The course requires a time commitment of 5 to 7 hours per week. There are weekly homework deadlines.

Intensive learning

- low student/instructor ratio
- continual discussion with peers; a forum to practise online communication skills
- includes personal clinical feedback from instructor

Topic sampler

- compensate for lack of non-verbal cues
- theoretical ethical and practical issues
- text-based communication and counselling skills

"I was an admitted sceptic about the ability of on line counselling to truly work with our clients but now feel it will be a great added resource to the services we provide."

"I will continue to practice my cybercounselling techniques. I did learn a strong foundation to begin to practice online therapy with clients."

"I enjoyed everything about this course."
