

COMMISSION for SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

United Nations Headquarters, New York

Virtual Side event

Social inclusion through digital inclusion in the context of sustainable development: trends and challenges.

February 9: 10.00 -11.15 EST, online

The event seeks to explore the pre-requisites and core activities necessary to ensure that all individuals and communities, including the most disadvantaged, have access to and use of information and communication technologies (ICT) and are fully capable of improving the terms of their participation in society through wider opportunities and access to resources, including digital resources. The presenters will address the existing challenges, as well as good practices that contribute to shaping the most appropriate models of digitalization focused on social well-being and welfare promotion.
