

International Association of Schools of Social Work President's Report (July-December 2021) for Online Board Meeting

Dear Colleagues,
Greetings!!

Before I start my report of activities for the period of June-December, 2021, I would like to express my tribute to Prof. Vimla Nadkarni, IASSW President 2012-2016 and immediate past president 2016 to until her demise. Her leadership and life-long dedication to improve the development of social work education in India and internationally, will continue to inspire all of us. Our deepest condolences to her family. May her soul rest in peace.

IASSW is receiving tribute , in remembrance message from across the world, which has been uploaded on IASSW website : <https://www.iassw-aiets.org/announcements/7510-tribute-to-prof-vimla-nadkarni/>

Let's welcome new Board Members in their first online board meeting.

Marlene Corydon Harritsø President of Nordic Association of Schools of Social Work (NASSW) and David Rose President of Asia Pacific Association of Social Work Education (APASWE) IASSW is thankful to the Board Members who have completed their term with IASSW in 2021: Zulkarnain Hatta, President APASWE, Teresa Francesca Bertotti President EASSW, Marcus Knutgård President NASSW

I would request you to please volunteer for following:

- Chair- Capacity Building Committee: Darla Spence Coffey wants to step down and we are thankful for her work with the committee.
- Chair- Publication Committee: P K Shahjahan was elected in 2016 for 4 years of Member-at-large position. Due to his personal reasons, he wants to leave the board and Chair of the publication committee.

Online Board Meeting

Due to Covid-19 restrictions we had again an online board meeting during June 10-11, 2021. Although, it was difficult for some of due to different time zones across the world. In spite of that we had 25 participants' (voting and non-voting board members) in attendance.

Tripartite Committee

IASSW, ICSW and IFSW met online on 29th November and agreed on following things:

- Global Summit
- Global Agenda
- WSWD 2022

Katherine Kendall

I participated as member of the Board, and representative of IASSW to different meetings organized to discuss the strategy of the KK Institute and to evaluate the project to be funded.

ISWESD

Publication of book is in process. Tiong will be updating more on it.

Communication manager position

Agnes Yuen was appointed at February 2020 and left in April 2021. As discussed in the July Board Meeting, a fresh call for a Communication Officer was sent in August and we received several applications across the world. Barbara Shank and myself shortlisted the most relevant and experienced one. They were given written assignments and interviewed in September.

After discussion, the President, Secretary and Treasurer finalized a candidate from India- Jenny Joy, and she started working from October. Her email address is jenny@iassw-aiets.org. She will be presenting her work done during October to December to the board.

Reports from the Committee

- I had online meetings with Chair of Committees of IASSW discussing about the progress and try to solve the issues (if anyone had it)
- I also sent emails to Chair s of the committee to confirm about their committee members and almost everyone responded and confirmed their members. I am thankful to each one.

Palestine/Isreal SW task force

After June Board meeting, a task force was formed, chair of task force is Tiong and he will update on it.

Other activities

I am sharing highlight of my participation to many different initiatives during the past six months:

July

- The 14th I had a meeting with the association of Spanish schools of social work, to present IASSW, respond to their questions and explore the possibility to organize a bulk membership. Prof. Francisco Rodenas, who is now the chair of this association was very much committed and is trying to overcome some beurocratic problems. The day after I gave a welcome speech to the "IV congreso internacional de trabajo social (CIFETS2021) y XIII congreso di Facultade y Escuelas de trabajo social , sobre Trabajo social en la era digital : Ética y Cuidados." For the preparation of the conference I gave a suggestion for three keynote speakers linked with our association: Vishanthie Sewpaul, Mark Henrikson and Abye Tasse, so they were on the conference.
